Entertainment

Circus Skills

Treat the little clown or acrobat in your life to a circus skills session from a trained circus performer.

Where: Big cage

Cost: £3.50 a session
(in and out available with stamp - no booking required)

Bouncy Castle Slide

Where: The green area behind the big cage

Cost: £3

Face Painting

It just wouldn't be a Kilmorie event without Magic Eyes making the children all spangly!

Where: Reception playground

Cost: £5-7

Games from around the world

Try Corn Hole or; Make the Stick Jump (Blackfoot) - indigenous people's games from North America; Deweke from Botswana; and Satoliya (Seven Stones) from India.

Where: Year 1 Play Area

Cost: 50p a go

Lucky Dip

Fun new format for 2025!

We're ditching the standard plastic prizes and sweets and trying something new. Kids can blindly pick a unique charm to be added to a keychain (provided) — or a necklace or bracelet they already own. Over the years, they can collect more charms or trade with friends, to represent their years at Kilmorie. Future events will bring new opportunities for themed charms that make memories.

Where: Main Hall Indoors

Cost: 50p

Tattoo Parlour

(temporary of course!)

Where: Main Hall Indoors

Cost: 50p to £1

Simply's Henna Tattoo Booth

Kilmorie's very own Simply will be showing off her amazing henna skills for anyone who wants to decorate their skin for the occasion.

Where: Market Stall Area in front of music room

Cost: £4-7

Kilmorie Carnival of Culture

Craft Corner

Children can use feathers, beads, shells and an array of fabrics to create a paper doll that represents their unique identity.
